

Introduction to the Venturer Scout Section - Overview

As a new Venturer Scout, we would like you to find out more about what we do in the Venturer Scout Section.

This will help you: -

- Meet other Scouts
- Set goals for what you wish to get out of your time in Scouting.

This is the Program Essentials – Introductions to the Venturer Scout Section.

Please talk with your Venturer Scout Leader and your mentor about what it means to be a Venturer Scout and get them to sign off below.

This section is like the Introduction to Scouting and is not a test.

It can be:

- Done at the same time as the Introduction to Scouting
- It can happen over a few weeks; you don't have to do it all at once

We have discussed	Date	Initials
What is the Venturer Scout Section all about? • What is the program?
What is a Patrol? • How does the Patrol System work?
What is a Unit Council?
What can I do in the Venturer Scout Section? • What are the key activities of this Section? • What are the interests of this Unit? • What are you interested in?
How can being a Venturer Scout help develop your leadership skills?
How are my achievements recorded?
Who signs off on achievements?
What does Look Wide mean for Venturer Scouts? (Symbolic Framework)
What does the Australian Scout Promise and Law mean to you? • How does this shape your behaviour and actions in the Section? • How does this shape your behaviour and actions in your life? • How is the Unit Code connected to the Australian Scout Promise and Law? • How does Be Respectful relate to listening and seeking help when needed?
Discuss trusting your instincts.
What are the behaviour expectations for you and the Unit?
How do you seek assistance and support if you feel excluded or targeted in the Section?
What do you want to achieve in Venturer Scouts?
What does Plan>Do>Review> look like in the Venturer Scout Section?

You will be given your Introduction to the Venturer Scout Section badge when you finish this part of the Program Essentials.

This is also the time when you will reaffirm your Australian Scout Promise as part of a special ceremony, and you are an equal member of your Venturer Scout Unit.
