Ballan Scout Hall Opening

I had the absolute pleasure of attending the official opening of the new Ballan Scout Hall last Sunday, and I must say, it was a truly remarkable event. Joined by esteemed guests Minister Natalie Suleyman MP, Michaela Settle MP, and Sam Rae MP, we gathered to commemorate this significant milestone for Scouts Victoria and the local community.

The occasion was a testament to the power of collaboration, as we celebrated the successful partnership between the State, Federal, and Local Government, alongside Scouts Victoria. It was a collective effort that demonstrated our shared commitment to investing in the development and growth of our young people and the community at large.

Natalie Suleyman MP expressed her delight in contributing funding towards this new facility, highlighting the positive impact it will have on the vibrant Ballan community. The hall stands as a symbol of unity and progress, showcasing what can be achieved when Scouting comes together. It is a versatile space that will benefit not only our Scouts but also the wider community, providing endless possibilities for growth, learning, and unforgettable experiences.

Being part of the official opening alongside our enthusiastic youth members was an absolute honour. Together, we witnessed the culmination of hard work, dedication, and shared vision. I have no doubt that this new Hall will be a hub of inspiration and a catalyst for positive change in the lives of countless young individuals.
